Caucuses Held In City Wards

Att'y D. L. Wilson Supervisor
Candidate from the Third.

The republican ward caucuses held in the various precincts Wednesday evening were rather spirited in the second and third wards, two or more candidates being in the field for Supervisor.

FIRST WARD.

Wm. F. Bashaw, who has served his precinct in an able manner for several years, had no opposition and was placed in nomination by unanimous ballot.

George Pringle was nominated constable.

Ward Committee:—A. E. Cross, Dan E. Goodman and C. A. Brabant.

SECOND WARD.

Franklin L. Smith, who has represented this ward as supervisor for several years, won the nomination Wednesday day evening, by the close margin of five votes over his opponent.

Robert Barnett was nominated constable.

Ward Committee:—Robert Barnett, Josiah St. John, Wm. Aldrich.

THIRD WARD.

Three candidates were in the field for Supervisor honors and this ward being the largest voting precinct in Charlevoix County, it brought out a large number of electors. No choice was made on the first ballot, but on the second Att'y D. L. Wilson won the nomination. Mr. Wilson is a capable young man and will undoubtedly be of valuable service to the county in the Supervisor Board's deliberations.

Henry C. Cook was nominated for constable.

Ward Committee:—Walter Cook, Att'y D. L. Fitch, H. C. Blount.

Swat the Dandelion.

Taking time by the forelock, let's swat the dandelion. It is none too early to begin, for great vigilance is necessary in war upon this pretty but too numerous pest.

Feeling sure all readers will be interested in anything that will help to eradicate the plant, I have been watching for different "remedies" suggested and will use this column this week and next to pass them along to you.

Here is what one well known citizen prescribes: Last year we cleared our lawn of dandelions in a very easy way. And we are even now after those that are again springing up, apparently from nowhere. To each gallon of water we put one or two pounds of sulphate of iron, stir thoroughly and let stand for six hours. A cheap sulphate of iron is good enough for this purpose can be bought for about one cent a lb. If the dandelions are not too numerous they can be killed by spraying with the mixture. If the yard is well filled with them, give them a good soaking. The mixture will not injure the grass, but every dandelion so touched will immediately wither and die.

Writing a special article for a magazine, a park custodian gave his experience, and it was not at all encouraging. He declared the only remedy that had proved successful with him was to dig up each plant as it appeared in the early spring. He said that by beginning early he was able to keep several acres almost free from the pest, but that it required eternal vigilance to do so. Next week we will give remedies suggested by the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., and by the superintendent of parks, Grand Forks, N. D.

The Office Devil

The editor was busy when he was asked: "How are the markets?" The man was referred to the office devil, who looked wise and said: "Young men unsteady; girls lively and in demand; papa firm, but declining; mamas, unsettled, waiting for higher bids; coffee, considerably mixed; fresh fish, active and slippery; eggs quiet, but expected to open soon; whiskey, still going down; onions, strong; yeast, rising; breadstuffs, heavy; boots and shoes, those on the market are sold and constantly going up and down; hats and caps, not so high as last year, excepting foolscap, which is stationary; tobacco, very low and has a downward tendency; silver close but not close enough to get hold of."—Ex.

TAFT ISSUES SECOND LETTER ON SPRAYING

State Inspector of Orchards
Takes Up Subject of the San Jose Scale.

East Lansing, March 22.—L. R. Taft, state inspector of orchards, issued today his second letter this spring on spraying. Treating of the San Jose scale Mr. Taft says:

"The San Jose scale has now become distributed over most of the counties in the southern half of the lower peninsula and has destroyed thousands of trees which the owners had not taken the precaution to spray. On the other hand, where the proper remedies had been thoroughly applied, the insects have been held in check and in many cases have been practically exterminated. Where spraying has failed to control them it is due to using too weak sprays, or from lack of thoroughness in spraying.

Lime-sulphur solution, either home-made or the commercial brands, is the most effectual remedy for this insect but it must be used at the rate of not less than one part of a 24 per cent commercial solution to nine parts of water; or one part of home-made solution (with the formula 100 pounds sulphur, sixty pounds lime and fifty gallons of water) in six parts of water.

Although the application may be made in the fall, or in the spring after freezing weather is over, the best results will be obtained when the treatment is given just as the buds are opening.

Scalecide and some of the other soluble oils are often used with good results but care should be taken not to apply them to peaches, plums and cherries; and upon other fruits a very fine spray only should be used.

Soluble sulphur is sometimes recommended for the San Jose scale. It is not a lime-sulphur preparation but is sulphide of soda, while lime-sulphur is sulphide of lime. We cannot recommend this material unless used about twice as strong as is advised by the manufacturers.

Before spraying for the San Jose scale the trees should be thoroughly pruned, all dead and surplus branches removed and the others headed back."

Of Interest To Women

Ruffles of various widths will decorate the new full skirts. One of dotted muslin has four ruffles finished in the old-time pinking. A bodice of plain material or of silk is crost in surplice fashion in front and tied in a loose knot in the back.

A full skirt is finished in scallops outlined by a contrasting material. Above this is a high girdle of the skirt material topped by a blouse of net or chiffon. The sleeves are long and full, finishing in a frill by a band of the material.

Combinations of plain and figured materials are liked for cotton goods as well as for silks and cloths. For instance, a flowered muslin or crepe skirt may have as many ruffles as the fancy dictates, combined with a prim little basque of plain crepe or taffeta buttoned straight down the front.

ONE SPOONFUL GIVES ASTONISHING RESULTS.

East Jordan residents are astonished at the QUICK results from the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-i-ka. This remedy acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel and is so THOROUGH a bowel cleanser that it is used successfully in appendicitis. ONE SPOONFUL of Adler-i-ka relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour or gassy stomach. ONE MINUTE after you take it, the gasses rumble and pass out. Druggist.—JAMES GIDLEY.

Gidley Has A Walk-a-way

Now Has Clear Field for City
Commissionership.

That the primary system is a 'gamble' was never better evidenced than the one held last Monday for City Commissioner. Three candidates were in the field, all business men of our city, all members of one of our popular fraternal organizations, and all rattling good fellows. Each voter had his favorite, but all agreed that the vote would be pretty close among the three candidates. When the votes were counted, however, James Gidley was in for one of the biggest surprises of his life. He not only led in the choice of candidates but had a majority of over a hundred over his two competitors.

In another column J. A. Lancaster, who received the next highest number of votes cast, announces that he will not be a candidate at the April election and will support Mr. Gidley. This gives the latter a clear field and insures his election.

To the Electors of the City of East Jordan.

It is evident from the vote cast Mar. 22nd, that Mr. Gidley is your choice for City Commissioner. I therefore will not be a candidate at the Election to be held April 5th and will heartily support James Gidley for above office.

J. A. LANCASTER.

Primary Election Canvass.

I hereby certify that I have canvassed the returns of the city primary election of March 22, 1915, as given by the several boards of election inspectors, and find the result to be as follows:

And Along Came Ruth

"Where are you, Auntie?" Ruth's merry voice rang through the house. "In the kitchen, dear, looking for some lost rice."

"What in the world do you mean?" Ruth asked, appearing at the kitchen door just as her aunt closed the refrigerator and said in a discouraged tone: "Well, someone has eaten up that cup of cooked rice I had meant to put in the chicken soup. What in the world am I to do?"

"Easy," said Ruth. "Stick a shredded wheat biscuit in the oven for a minute, then crumble it into the soup. It will taste just like noodles."

And along went Ruth.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

A woman may be induced to tell her age, but she will not confess that she has never been loved.

KITCHEN KINKS

Cream cheese mixed with chopped celery and olives and formed into balls, which are then rolled in chopped nut meats, makes a delicious salad served on lettuce leaves with French dressing.

When potatoes are inclined to turn black in cooking, add a few drops of vinegar to the water in which they are boiled. This is excellent, as it makes the potatoes beautifully white and mealy.

WARNING

All persons having rubbish to dump are hereby notified to place same at the city dump and nowhere else within the city limits.

All dead animals and putrid flesh must be buried. Persons placing such matter on the city dump are liable to arrest and fine.

Heard on the Street.

The other day a group of men were discussing the dry weather. One man remarked:

It is so dry up my way that all the creeks are dried up and the fish are standing on their noses and you can pull them up like radishes.

That's nothing like it out my way, said another man. I was walking along the road and I saw a man pull up a 395 foot well and run it through a clothes wringer to get the baby a drink.

CITROLAX

Citrolax!

Best thing for constipation, sour stomach, lazy liver and sluggish bowels. Stop a sick headache almost at once. Give a most thorough and satisfactory flushing—no pain, no nausea. Keep your system cleansed, sweet and wholesome. Ask for Citrolax.—Hite's Drug Store.
